

Bidford on Avon

Church of England Primary School

Dear Parents

Home School Agreement

The home-school agreement explains our school's aims and values, our responsibilities towards our pupils, the responsibilities of parents, and expectations of pupils who attend our school.

Our agreement has been drawn up by the Governing Body and is part of a whole school approach to working with parent. It is designed to be balanced, fair, even-handed and meaningful.

By accepting a place at our school for your child, you agree to abide by these responsibilities to support your in child enabling them to follow our expectations and school rules.

I would be grateful if you could read through the agreement and let us know if you have any concerns.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'P Wilkinson', with a large, sweeping flourish at the end.

For: _____

We value the efforts, achievements and participation of all those involved in the learning process. Within the framework of a Christian ethos, we aim to enable the children to do be their best.

The school will:

- Provide a broad, balanced and engaging curriculum that caters for a wide range of individual needs.
- Provide a stimulating and welcoming learning environment where the safety and health of the child is always important.
- Keep parents informed about the progress and development of their child.
- Provide regular information about school activities.
- Give clear guidelines for homework and remote learning
- Listen sympathetically to any concerns and deal with them accordingly.

Parents/Carers will:

- Ensure their children attend school regularly and on time and will inform the school promptly when their child is absent.
- Talk to the school about any concerns or worries.
- Attend parents' evenings to discuss their child's progress.
- Provide a suitable place and support for homework and listen regularly to their child read.
- Support the school's policies on behaviour, school uniform and healthy lifestyle.

Children will:

- Be kind, helpful and polite to everyone in school.
- Tell their teacher if they have any problems or worries.
- Do their best in everything they do.
- Comply with the school behaviour code and policy.

Together we will:

- Encourage children to develop positive attitudes to learning, be aspirational and have respect for each other.
- Encourage good behaviour in all aspects of school life.
