

NEWSLETTER 29 – 7th May 2010

Dear Parents, Pupils & Governors,

Positive about Young People – Mr Simms and Miss Mason took three of our pupils to Warwick last week for the celebration of work across the county by the 'Positive about Young People' team. The team are running a number of activities for school children including our Activity Club and the mobile skate park days.

Food for Life Cooking Bus – The Cooking Bus has been with us this week teaching adults to promote cooking skills to children. A selection of children from year 2 to 6 have also been able to take part in cooking demonstrations on a theme of food from around the world.

Football Tournament - We took two teams to the St Benedicts 5-a-side football tournament this week. The players enjoyed the tournament and both teams played well. Thank you to parents for support and transport.

New Baptist Minister – Jamie Cox, the new Minister of Bidford Baptist Church, led our collective worship on Wednesday. He told the story of Gideon relating it to one of our favourite hymns 'Be Bold, Be Strong'.

Year 6 SATS – Please remember that Year 6 SATs are being held next week. Please ensure your children have a good nights sleep and breakfast so they can be at their best.

School Lunch Menu - Your child will have been given a copy of the Warwickshire County Caterers summer term menu. The new menu starts on Monday 17th May.

Sale of School Uniform – There will a sale of second hand school uniform in the hall, before and after school, on Monday 17th May.

Tesco for Schools and Clubs Tokens – Sunday is the last day that Tesco will be giving out the tokens - please send in your tokens as soon as possible. Thank you.

Mr B's Beacon Club Party – Following a day of activities and workshops at school on Friday 14th May, Bidford Baptist Church are hosting a party between 5.00 and 6.30pm – all children welcome. There will be NO Celebration Collective Worship that day. The Tennis Club will still be on but will be held outside on the courts.

Book of the Week – Mrs White's class have been looking at non fiction books about Snails. They have been finding out lots of interesting facts about the creatures.

Mr A Simms
